Ref: KNMPR/0112/11/f

Date: Tuesday 24th May 2011

Subject: Dates announced for AVIONICS EUROPE 2012

AVIONICS EUROPE 2012, the event for the commercial and defence aerospace Industries, will be celebrating its 10th Anniversary in March 2012.

This prestigious event will once again be held at MOC Event Centre, Munich, Germany, from the 21st to 22nd March 2012.

AVIONICS EUROPE has grown into the leading global exhibition and conference for commercial and defence avionics, providing the premier platform for industry to learn, network, source new information, and view the latest technologies and products available on the market, all at one unique annual event.

Avionics Europe offers industry suppliers, integrators, airlines, operators, air-framers, prime contractors, end users and Defence & MOD personnel a dedicated business environment covering all aspects of commercial and defence aerospace avionics.

The 2012 conference will offer an enhanced level of content, with a multi-track programme, looking at both fixed wing and rotary, and variety of workshops. Content will include strategic and technical details for both commercial and defence sectors of the industry.
